Scandinavia through the Eyes of a Jewish Traveler

Join internationally published art and travel writer Irene Shaland as she takes us through Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, known for their stunning natural beauty, magnificent royal capitals, and stark modern architecture. Explore the Jewish history of these countries, the role each one played during the Holocaust, and understand what it means to live as a Jew in Scandinavia today.

Irene will also talk about a new kind of anti-Semitism, which thanks to modern technology and social media, is fast spreading throughout the countries that for most of the 20th century personified tolerance, freedom, and inclusion.
