

Irene Shaland Presents

Scandinavia through the Eyes of a Jewish Traveler

Join internationally published art and travel writer Irene Shaland as she takes you through Norway, Sweden and Denmark, three countries known for their stunning natural beauty, magnificent royal capitals and stark modern architecture. Explore the Jewish history of these countries and understand what it means to live as a Jew in Scandinavia today. (Shaland also discusses how she sees technology and social media spreading anti-Semitism throughout the countries that, for most of the 20th century, personified tolerance, freedom and inclusion.)
